I just wanted to take a minute to thank you for your messages I hear on your radio shows. I've been listening every week morning since I discovered the show. It pretty much always feels like you're talking directly to me as the message applies to issues I'm currently facing and they offer an objective perspective on what can often feel like overwhelming life situations. Somehow, after hearing your words though, I feel rejuvenated and ready to face the issues with a new viewpoint, a new sense of "I can totally do this!", and a bunch of "WOW! My kids rock - I want to be the best I can be for them!." I don't get to spend much time at the computer, so I don't do much surfing. But, by this point and how closely your message this week applied to my life - I had to at least take the time to let you know how much I appreciate your words. You are a total inspiration and one more reason to find so much hope at a time when things feel a bit out of control in the world today. Thank you for all that you do - you help bring out the "I want to do more to help this world." I look forward to hearing your message! C. Ellis

I was so fulfilled with your words (only hearing just the last 8 minutes of it). I'm a parent of 2 boys with learning issues. Keep up the good work and know that you are providing a badly needed service to this world. Anonymous

I began listening to your show for a couple of months, I felt so empowered that I suggested the show to my mother. She and I have had a very rocky relationship throughout my entire life. After listening to your show for many months, the two of us have made general strides in our relationship, and also my personal strides have been phenomenal. I am entirely and amazingly grateful to you for the inspiration you've given. A. Myers

I was listening to one of your CD's and I just have to tell you how perplexed and curious a I am about how you KNOW these things. I was listening to the one about getting rid of negativity, and I must say, I procrastinated about listening to it because I think I've heard it all. You certainly have a different, but more realistic take on things. K. Smith

I greatly appreciated the presentation you gave on your show this morning. I did not hear the entire program, but what I heard was excellent. It was good to hear positive content on the radio. H. Quillian III,

I find your messages to be practical, applicable, inspiring and motivating to me. You are helping me tremendously and don't even know it! As painful as it has been at times and as disheartened as I have felt, I am grasping the opportunity to become reacquainted with me and move forward in my life. Your CD's are helping me in that work. Your work is truly been a gift to me and helps me to acknowledge my emotions and feelings and to accept and come to grips with them. I am moving ahead now and am happy with the direction, priorities and goals I have set for myself. M. Moore

I listen to your program regularly and recommend other parents to do the same. I have found your program very helpful and always timely M. Bryan

There is something about your work that's so perfect. Maybe it's incentive. It's as if adults, who ordinarily might not care to work on their own personal development, would do so for the benefit of their children. Your work seems to give adults an incentive to grow as individuals because they believe it will be good for their children. A perfect win-win scenario...
Adam, creator of The Now Watch

What I just heard stunned me. your perspective on relationships is fascinating. B. Drew

I have your book and CD on the Soulmate Process, and I'm glad I do! I have been looking for that person in my life for several years, and I sometimes get very discouraged. Your work is so loving and encouraging...My heart is touched by even talking about it now. You present a fresh perspective that is really helpful to me on my journey, such as the importance of being a good "lifemate". I listen to your CD over and over again in my car, and I get something new from it every time. I'm a relationship coach and I work with people to help them find the one they are looking for...and I have not seen much material out there that has the depth that yours has. Thank you for enriching my life and giving me hope! L. Wilson

I heard your broadcast this morning and I just wanted to say thank you so much because I really needed something like that in my life. Adrea
